The Lifecycle (below left) refers to the lifecycle of your passion where you are now some time inbetween when you started this passion, and when it will eventually die (this may be when you leave planet earth behind, or you may want it to continue beyond your last moments here.) ... You get to decide.

- Fill in the 7 (seven) open spaces with words that describe these phases of your passion. Use your own words.
- The middle section is divided into two (left "L" refers to what has just happened and right "M" refers to what is about to happen to you.)
- All answers must be in English, excepting where they refer to specific words that cannot be translated into English as they directly refer to terms related to your passion.
