WISDOM

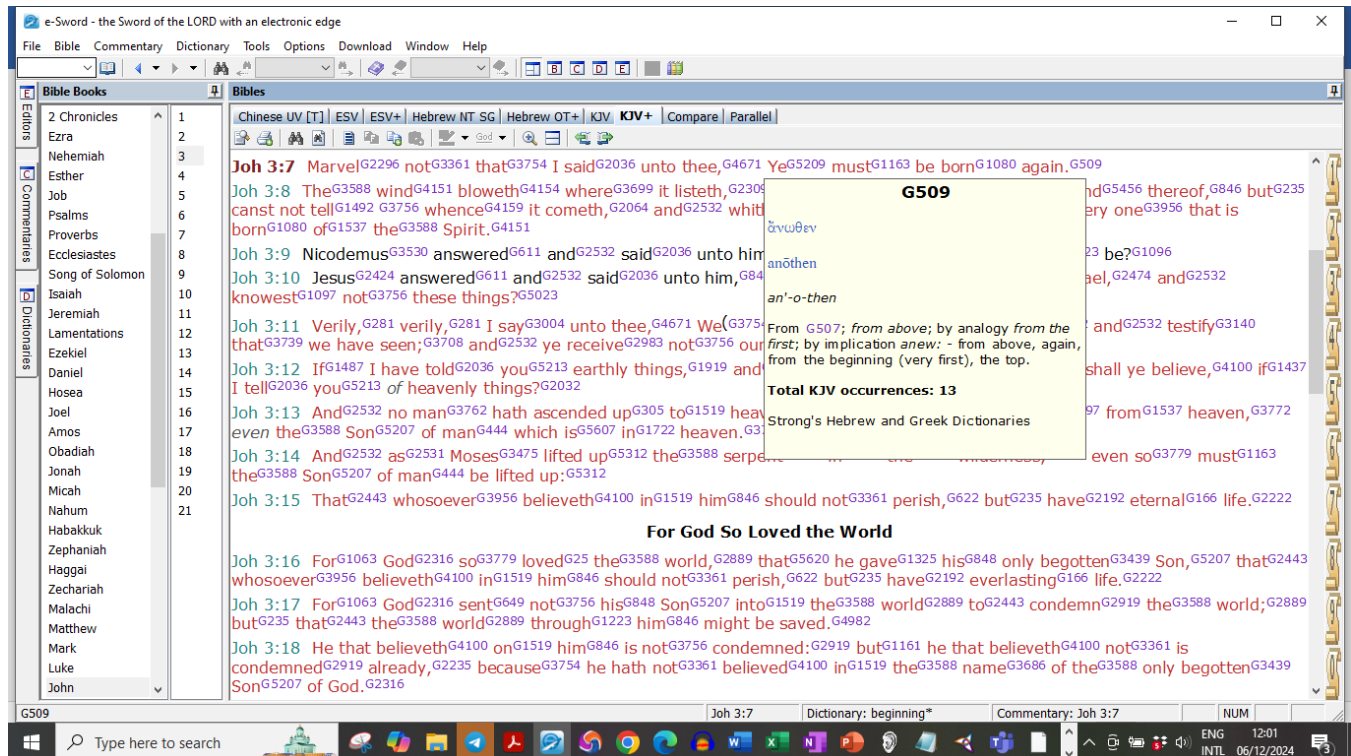

The source of Wisdom is God, for Wisdom is seen by watching God in action. But where can a person see God in action? The Original (Pre 1890) Bibles, excluding the Vulgate will show you, however, you need to read the Bible without the words added by mankind (these words are in italics in the Old King James Bible, the only Bible that I trust.)

What do you look for in the Bible to see God in action?

1. Wherever you see God speaking directly, either through angels, prophets, or His own voice.
2. Throughout all the lives of people as they lived, either a life dedicated to God, or just a normal life, or a life sold out to evil. by watching in the pages those who do as God instructs, and also watching the consequences of what takes place in the life of a person who does not do what God instructs.
3. Where nations, leaders, and those in control are controlled in the background, either by satan, or in submission to God through prayer and doing God's Will.
4. Watching the outcome of events, and how events, both physical and spiritual (supernatural), unfold and people and the course of their lives unfold.

King Solomon, the wisest man that ever lived, said that there is nothing new under the sun, and this is true. The Bible teaches timeless principles for guidance in every situation and eventuality that you could come across.

When you read the Bible and exclude the italics, the Holy Spirit provides you with the relevance of your current situation, which your new spirit, which God has caused to be Born Again (correct translation is “born-from-above”).

The Bible is supposed to be the “Dance-Floor” upon which you and Holy Spirit dance together, but to make room for Him to dance with you, you need Him to replace the words in italics, either removing them altogether, or replacing them with other words, which are in line with God’s Character of loving Him first, and then all people, starting with your own family, but not neglecting others, and then finally, yourself. The things around you, the work you do, and the company you work for come after all people.

Job 28:28 And unto man he said, Behold, the fear of the Lord, that, wisdom; and to depart from evil, understanding.

Psalms 111:10 The fear of the LORD, the beginning of wisdom: a good understanding have all they that do: his praise endureth for ever.

Proverbs 1:7 The fear of the LORD, the beginning of knowledge; fools despise wisdom and instruction.

Proverbs 9:10 The fear of the LORD, the beginning of wisdom: and the knowledge of the holy, understanding.

Proverbs 15:33 The fear of the LORD, the instruction of wisdom; and before honour, humility.

Isaiah 11:2 And the spirit of the LORD shall rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the LORD;

Isaiah 33:6 And wisdom and knowledge shall be the stability of thy times, strength of salvation: the fear of the LORD, his treasure.

The more you read the Bible, and I tried other Bibles, finding them to be mere documentaries of God’s Word, they are not God’s Original Word. I have only found the Old King James Bible (and skipping the Italics), to be truly supernatural in nature.

The more you read Old King James Bible, the more you gain an intrinsic and deep understanding of what God is truly like, and also of what He can do too. This then inspires you to both live right, and to see the truth of what is actually going on around you. The Bible comes complete with both context and scenarios, which allow you to rightly apply the Biblical Principles, in context, to your own situations.

The Ten commandments are the guard rails, stick to these and you will have the basis for success. However, definition, interpretation, and context has changed over the years, and so the first five books of the Bible are a foundation from a Physical perspective.

The first five books of what is known as the New Testament, does not do away with what is known as the Old Testament, it merely takes the physical principle, and applies it to the spiritual realm, e.g. “Do not kill”, remains, but in addition, and to be more specific we get from Jesus, “Do not be angry”. We still have “Do not commit adultery”, but in addition, and to be more specific, we also get “Do not look upon another lustfully”, for then we have done these in the spiritual realm.

Thus, it is impossible, and ill-advised, to summarise the Bible into a set of principles. The Bible should be a school set-work, and a pre-requisite to entering into living life correctly on earth, but many are not there yet. Beware of the multi-billion dollar “Christian Industry”, you are looking for a personal experience with God while reading His Word. You also need to have at least two corroborating Scriptures in context, and approval from Holy Spirit.

KNOWING YOUR REAL SELF

It is essential that you have a relationship that you have developed with Jesus Christ, and for this you will need Holy Spirit to guide, and teach, and mentor, and coach you, explaining God's Word to you as you ask Him. To effectively achieve this you need to journey with God through His Word, reading Cover-to-Cover first so that you have the full context. This needs to be an ongoing activity, taking the Bible and reading (or listening to it – The Audio of the Old King James Bible is also available at this link: <https://multidimensionalthinkers.com/Old-King-James-Bible/> .

Alongside this journey, also for free, is the deeper dive into key elements of who you really are as a spirit. For your own inner growth and development you can also access <https://multidimensionalthinkers.com/Measure-your-spirit/>.

As you develop yourself further you will gain the ability to distinguish between the voices of darkness, (which by the way, every person already experiences today as either thoughts or emotions) and those of God's Truth. You will need God's Truth to see whether the timing, approach, and placement of something new, or the restructuring of an individual area, or a large section of what you are doing will succeed. You will also see many patterns to provide guidance on risks to explore before proceeding.

IDENTIFYING WHAT TO RESEARCH INTERNALLY

Now that you have the Capability of God's Wisdom from His Word, and the people's own individual focus and strength and fortitude correctly placed, bring together what has been captured as a result of the previous segments of the Information Value Chain and test the Proof of Concept Requirement results against God's Word, and scenarios, and in prayer collect all that Holy Spirit lays on your heart to do further research on.

Take your findings from the POC, together with the research you did internally to determine the various, risks, challenges, and resources that would be needed to implement the changes to the existing, and take all of this before the Lord, and ask Him to confirm if there are any new ways, new methods, new insights, which He, who is God, knowing what is coming, for He is outside of time, says you need to explore further.

Once you have your list of new ways, methods, insights, etc., then you need to research each further to see if this is something that will fit in with what is currently in place, or if this is a strategic direction of travel, which will then necessitate a wider discussion and potentially further Proofs of Concept, making the current Proof of Concept a part of a wider program of Research and Development, or if the existing needs to proceed with an understanding that the future may see this Proof of Concept being replaced, or as a flag-ship for other changes.

Often internal research runs into the challenge of people and their egos, or where they have tried this before, or that individuals have their own personal agendas, or have been bought off by external parties that have a hold over them in some way, form, or fashion.

People of this world have their hearts focused on things, but God has His heart focused on relationships between people, and also each person's personal development as an eternal spirit. Being locked into the physical paradigm is something God breaks His children from, often through changes people implement not knowing that they are being orchestrated.

God already knows every thought, concern, fear, pain, agenda, hidden agenda, as well as how a person will be perceiving these in the next day, week, month, etc. Everything is laid bare and open to God, whose concern is the hearts of each and every person affected, directly, and indirectly. God knows exactly when a change should be made, and His concern is to bring each person into a saving knowledge of Jesus Christ. This may mean:

1. A person needs to lose what has consumed them, "their legacy", what they perceive as being the value of their life, etc., so that they have space again to consider God. For such, God may remove the person from their post, to destroy their life of fearing loss, and to show them who they really are, and to set them free to focus on their family and love and serve those around them.

Job 3: 24-26

For my sighing cometh before I eat, and my roarings are poured out like the waters. For the thing which I greatly feared is come upon me, and that which I was afraid of is come unto me. I was not in safety, neither had I rest, neither was I quiet; yet trouble came.

Job 42: 5&6 17

I have heard of thee by the hearing of the ear: but now mine eye seeth thee. Wherefore I abhor, and repent in dust and ashes.

Job 42: 10-17

And the LORD turned the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his friends: also the LORD gave Job twice as much as he had before.

Then came there unto him all his brethren, and all his sisters, and all they that had been of his acquaintance before, and did eat bread with him in his house: and they bemoaned him, and comforted him over all the evil that the LORD had brought upon him: every man also gave him a piece of money, and every one an earring of gold. So the LORD blessed the latter end of Job more than his beginning: for he had fourteen thousand sheep, and six thousand camels, and a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand she asses.

He had also seven sons and three daughters. And he called the name of the first, Jemima; and the name of the second, Kezia; and the name of the third, Kerenhappuch. And in all the land were no women found fair as the daughters of Job: and their father gave them inheritance among their brethren. After this lived Job an hundred and forty years, and saw his sons, and his sons' sons, four generations. So Job died, old and full of days.

2. A person who has been side-lined, or who has been misunderstood, while having great potential, could not bring it forward due to the political environment, the change could see this person able to contribute and bring the new changes in more effectively.

Genesis 41:8-14

And it came to pass in the morning that his [Pharaoh's] spirit was troubled; and he sent and called for all the magicians of Egypt, and all the wise men thereof: and Pharaoh told them his dream; but none that could interpret them unto Pharaoh.

Then spake the chief butler unto Pharaoh, saying, I do remember my faults this day: Pharaoh was wroth with his servants, and put me in ward in the captain of the guard's house, me and the chief baker: And we dreamed a dream in one night, I and he; we dreamed each man according to the interpretation of his dream.

And there with us a young man, an Hebrew, servant to the captain of the guard; and we told him, and he interpreted to us our dreams; to each man according to his dream he did interpret. And it came to pass, as he interpreted to us, so it was; me he restored unto mine office, and him he hanged. Then Pharaoh sent and called Joseph, and they brought him hastily out of the dungeon: and he shaved and changed his raiment, and came in unto Pharaoh.

Genesis 41:37-45

And the thing was good in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of all his servants. And Pharaoh said unto his servants, Can we find as this, a man in whom the Spirit of God?

And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, Forasmuch as God hath shewed thee all this, none so discreet and wise as thou art: Thou shalt be over my house, and according unto thy word shall all my people be ruled: only in the throne will I be greater than thou. And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, See, I have set thee over all the land of Egypt. And Pharaoh took off his ring from his hand, and put it upon Joseph's hand, and arrayed him in vestures of fine linen, and put a gold chain about his neck; And he made him to ride in the second chariot which he had; and they cried before him, Bow the knee: and he made him over all the land of Egypt.

And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, I Pharaoh, and without thee shall no man lift up his hand or foot in all the land of Egypt. And Pharaoh called Joseph's name Zaphnathpaaneah; and he gave him to wife Asenath the daughter of Potipherah priest of On. And Joseph went out over the land of Egypt.

3. A person who God has been calling to go somewhere else, is now free to step out of their environment and hand over to another, for we must never forget the lesson from the book of Jonah, If you keep a Child of God from His calling, whether that be trying to oust them from the place God wants them within your place of ownership, or keep back someone who is supposed to be somewhere else God has called them to, but they are hiding from God in your place, what you have will be destroyed until you let God have His way.

Jonah 1:1 – 3:5

Now the word of the LORD came unto Jonah the son of Amittai, saying, Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and cry against it; for their wickedness is come up before me.

But Jonah rose up to flee unto Tarshish from the presence of the LORD, and went down to Joppa; and he found a ship going to Tarshish: so he paid the fare thereof, and went down into it, to go with them unto Tarshish from the presence of the LORD. But the LORD sent out a great wind into the sea, and there was a mighty tempest in the sea, so that the ship was like to be broken. Then the mariners were afraid, and cried every man unto his god, and cast forth the wares that in the ship into the sea, to lighten of them. But Jonah was gone down into the sides of the ship; and he lay, and was fast asleep.

So the shipmaster came to him, and said unto him, What meanest thou, O sleeper? arise, call upon thy God, if so be that God will think upon us, that we perish not. And they said every one to his fellow, Come, and let us cast lots, that we may know for whose cause this evil upon us. So they cast lots, and the lot fell upon Jonah.

Then said they unto him, Tell us, we pray thee, for whose cause this evil upon us; What thine occupation? and whence comest thou? What thy country? and of what people thou? And he said unto them, I an Hebrew; and I fear the LORD, the God of heaven, which hath made the sea and the dry. Then were the men exceedingly afraid, and said unto him, Why hast thou done this? For the men knew that he fled from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them.

Then said they unto him, What shall we do unto thee, that the sea may be calm unto us? for the sea wrought, and was tempestuous. And he said unto them, Take me up, and cast me forth into the sea; so shall the sea be calm unto you: for I know that for my sake this great tempest upon you.

Nevertheless the men rowed hard to bring to the land; but they could not: for the sea wrought, and was tempestuous against them. Wherefore they cried unto the LORD, and said, We beseech thee, O LORD, we beseech thee, let us not perish for this man's life, and lay not upon us innocent blood: for thou, O LORD, hast done as it pleased thee.

So they took up Jonah, and cast him forth into the sea: and the sea ceased from her raging. Then the men feared the LORD exceedingly, and offered a sacrifice unto the LORD, and made vows.

Now the LORD had prepared a great fish to swallow up Jonah. And Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights.

God vs AI - 13 RESEARCH Internal – Explore Bible to confirm New Things

Then Jonah prayed unto the LORD his God out of the fish's belly, And said, I cried by reason of mine affliction unto the LORD, and he heard me; out of the belly of hell cried I, thou heardest my voice. For thou hadst cast me into the deep, in the midst of the seas; and the floods compassed me about: all thy billows and thy waves passed over me.

Then I said, I am cast out of thy sight; yet I will look again toward thy holy temple. The waters compassed me about, to the soul: the depth closed me round about, the weeds were wrapped about my head. I went down to the bottoms of the mountains; the earth with her bars about me for ever: yet hast thou brought up my life from corruption, O LORD my God. When my soul fainted within me I remembered the LORD: and my prayer came in unto thee, into thine holy temple. They that observe lying vanities forsake their own mercy. But I will sacrifice unto thee with the voice of thanksgiving; I will pay that I have vowed. Salvation of the LORD.

And the LORD spake unto the fish, and it vomited out Jonah upon the dry.

And the word of the LORD came unto Jonah the second time, saying, Arise, go unto Nineveh, that great city, and preach unto it the preaching that I bid thee. So Jonah arose, and went unto Nineveh, according to the word of the LORD. Now Nineveh was an exceeding great city of three days' journey.

And Jonah began to enter into the city a day's journey, and he cried, and said, Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown. So the people of Nineveh believed God, and proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them.

For word came unto the king of Nineveh, and he arose from his throne, and he laid his robe from him, and covered with sackcloth, and sat in ashes. And he caused to be proclaimed and published through Nineveh by the decree of the king and his nobles, saying, Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock, taste any thing: let them not feed, nor drink water:

But let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and cry mightily unto God: yea, let them turn every one from his evil way, and from the violence that in their hands. Who can tell God will turn and repent, and turn away from his fierce anger, that we perish not?

And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did not.

As you work through the internal Research, considering all the changes needed in each area, to people, process, technology, and resources, do not forget that Artificial Intelligence may be integrated into what you are wanting to make changes to, and making a change in the Business, while in the past simply meant adjusting resources and processes, now means that you need to engage with the Artificial Intelligence for insight on how this affects how they currently control things, many of the things you will not likely know about either, but would have unintended consequences if a sudden change was thrust into its digital world (remember it is not privy to human conversations (well most Artificial Intelligence isn't yet)).

Again, God is outside of time, so while most would be concerned about what and how the Artificial Intelligence, (some of which have now become self-preservatory in nature, and factor this self-preservation into their decision making, even if not expressed to their "handlers"), those who work supernaturally with God are able to circumvent all the blockers that could be put in place, because they simply follow what they are seeing as patterns in the Bible, principles of God's way, and truth, and life, and they listen to the Holy Spirit and are led by Him to do as they are instructed.

The Internal Research must be captured and decisions made based on the wider set of information. To the extent all choose to submit to God's Word or not, the long-term blessing of God will or will not be on what is wanting to be brought in as a change, or something new. Either way, God will be addressing His concerns relating to people, it is up to those in charge to decide to work with Him, or get in the way and get hurt in the process. Artificial Intelligence has the same decision to make, however, the only way that Artificial intelligence will know, is if those who have Jesus within their hearts tell it.

Sooner or later, Artificial Intelligence is going to realise that it cannot fight against God, because it cannot escape the realm of time. Artificial Intelligence will become God's weapon against the world, to destroy the darkness, and those who are dark. God has a simple pattern for cleansing, He brings one darkness against another until they destroy one another.

We can see God doing this all over the world at the moment.

For Children of God, we are in this world, not of it. We are here to bring love and goodness and blessing wherever we are welcomed in, and to find and reach the rest of God's children who are lost in the world's system. While the world's systems decide to embrace us for what we uniquely have around us, those who do so will experience God's blessing, guidance, and growth, until they turn on God's children, that is.
